
When in Bologna you have plenty to explore and some great lodging choices too!

By David H Urmann

Bologna is a beautiful city in intriguing Italy which is thought to be the greatest tourist spots in this country. You will find loads of religious as well as historical sites here which speak volumes about the past of this place. If you want some nice accommodations during your stay here, we provide you the list of best hotels in Bologna.

Religious sites

The Basilica di San Domenico is a popular historical and religious spot. Holding the tomb of St. Domenico, this is actually a renaissance masterpiece dating back to the 13th century. Right from the choir stalls to the sculptured tomb, it is an piece of perfection! If you wish to savor this architectural delight more often you can choose an accommodation nearby. There are many low cost hotels in bologna italy which offer you comfortable stay too.

Historical museums

The Museo del Duomo or the Duomo and Duomo museum is a huge cathedral located in Bologna. It is very soothing and doesnt have too many people, which can be wonderful if you just want to visit the place in a calm and relaxed fashion. This cathedral has a distinguished air and feel to it which is quite dissimilar any other place in Italy. If you want a lodging near to the airport then the bologna airport lodging can be ideal for you. On the other hand if you have come here on a work related tour with office colleagues consider some of the bologna hotel meeting rooms to conduct conferences during your stay here.

Town plazas

The Piazza Maggiore is a popular town square in Bologna. It has many interesting places for visitors. Some of them include an ancient gallery, fantastic Basilica cafes as well as a municipal library that goes upto three stories. The town plaza boasts of the largest open air theaters here. Visitors come here to watch free movies and have fun. It can be a good choice for you if you plan on a long stay. Two popular choices in terms of putting up in Bologna include the prenotazione hotel bologna as well as the aeroporto bologna hotel.

Towering heights

No matter what the purpose of your visit to Bologna, if its personal or work related, you need to see the Asinelli and Garisenda towers in Bologna once in your life. A climb up almost 500 steps plus a extravagant view of the expanse of Bologna are two of the things that make this venue want you come back for more. If you are looking for a place to stay during your official visit here, then there are many cheap hotels in bologna to meet your needs. You will find many a exclusive bologna luxury hotel that is in keeping with your personal tastes and preferences. Two other fantastic staying choices include the hotel bologna pisa as well as the hotel bologna stazione. You will find a fine blend of hospitality and modern conveniences here.

For Travel ideason cheap bologna hotel Check out our website.

Hotel Cleaning

{mos_sb_discuss:2}